MESSY CHURCH SESSION
SATURDAY 4-6PM

Invite your friends and family to experience
Messy Church!

Any questions:

Mandi Geustyn (mandi@messychurch.nz)

The training day will take place from 9:30 AM to 3:00 PM on Saturday, followed by a 'Messy Church in Action' from 4:00 to 6:00 PM, allowing participants to experience what Messy Church looks, feels, and tastes like.

Bring your family, friends and church community to taste and see Messy Church.

Have you ever wondered
'What is Messy Church'?

What is its purpose, and why is it popping up all over Aotearoa New Zealand and around the globe? What is it about Messy Church that keeps families and all ages coming back, learning about Jesus and finding a wonderful Christian community to belong to?

The Messy Church Training Day is an opportunity to learn from members of the MC National Team and discover the values of Messy Church and how to run it in your church context.

Good read

Book

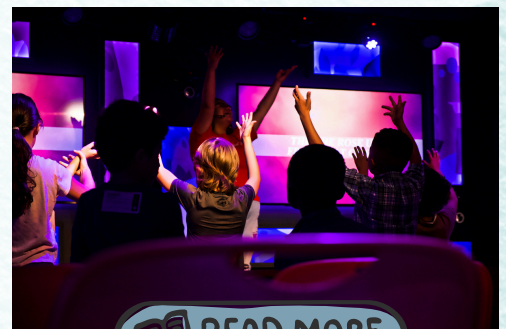

Designed for parents, youth and children's ministry leaders, mentors, and anyone seeking to make a profound difference in young lives, this book unravels the intricate connection between leadership and discipleship. Based on Erik Erikson's psychosocial development stages, Discipleship is Leadership offers theoretical guidance and practical tools for effective discipleship of children and youth. This book aims to simplify discipleship and instill confidence in parents, grandparents, youth workers, teachers, and anyone who cares deeply about leading and discipling children and youth. This book encourages the reader to explore diverse leadership models and incorporate them into discipleship practices.
